GORE'S HOBBY.

In Interesting Story About Our Blind Senator.

Washington, Dec. 9.-Aside from the interest that attaches all over the country to the fact that there are five members of congress and two senators from the new state of Oklahoma the keenest kind of interest is shown here in the personalities of the Oklahoma delegation. There have been Indians in congress before but never have there been two from the same state, while the blind senator from Oklahoma, Mr. Gore has been the subject of many an interesting sketch in the eastern newspapers.

Although handicapped by his inability to see, Senator Gore is one of the most striking personalities in the senate. He comes to the nation's chief forum with the reputation of being an prator of more than ordinary ability and a statesman of great acumen. with the Oklahoman for the first time can hardly believe that his clear grey eyes are sightless. His features have trays the fact that he cannot see.

Senator Gore has one great hobby that of the removal of the restrictions on the sale of lands in the Indian Territory. He has come to Washington with work preeminently before him and before the conclusion of the session which has just convened, his fine oratory will be exerted in its behalf.

'As every man who comes to represent his state in Washington brings with him some pet political project, I don't mind avowing mine," he remarked recently" "I shall plead on every occasion for the removal of the restrictions on the sale of land in the indian Territory. They act as a great handicap to our people and should be abolished. This is my political hobby to talking of it as was Cato with his "Carthage must be destroyed."

No Chance for President.

"As far as personal ambitions are concerned," he continued, "I am at present anxious only to serve the people of my state, so newly entered into this great sisterhood, to the very best of my ability. It is said that every man who comes to the senate has secretely the wish to be president but the latitude of my birth and the longitude of my residence make that out of the question for me. I was born in Mississippi, and that is almost as bad for a would-be president as being born in a foreign land. We are still a little too far west in Oklahoma to cake a president out there. I am of Southern stock and my father fought in the Confederate army for two years standing and two years runming, as he used to say.

Although unable to see Senator Gore has done considerable "sight-seeing" m and about Washington. Having familiarized himself thoroughly with the capital, and its history he went over the entire senate chamber feeling with his cane the location of every senator's seat. He has visited the $6.00 blankets, fancy plaids in pink preme court room, and many other places of interest. Senator Gore's ear is especially quick and already he recognizes his colleagues when they speak to him.

State Bankers' Association including bankers from Oklahoma City and other towns of Oklahoma, will meet in the tone hotel in Guthrie at noon today . to discuss the features of senate bill 13 regulating banking institutions of the state, the main feature of which is the provision for a "depositor's guaranty fund" financed an dreplenished by a one per cent tax levy on all deposits.

CHICAGO IS CHOSEN.

Next Republican National Convention Will Be Held in Windy City.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The selection of Chicago as the place of holding the republican national convention is accepted by almost everyone as evidence that a majority of the committee have banded together to nominate some one other than Secretary Taft. A few of the more prominent supporters of Secretary Taft deny that this is the signification of today's action, but the denial is made in a manner that contradicts their words. Where the convention is held is not, of course a matter of vital consequence, in deciding that they do not predetermine the action of the convention. But it is a point in the game for which Secre-. Those who are brought face to face tary Taft's friends played as hard as did his opponents. It is motive to those politicians throughout the country who are intent only on getting of a classic regularity and it is only by the winning side that a majority of the committee, all of them potential a peculiarity of his glance that bepoliticians in their communities, are against the aspirations of the secre-

SOMETHING OF A CYNIC.

Papa Had Extreme Views on the Subject of Marriage.

Miss Marie Cahill, the actress, chose the chorus girls for her new play, "Marrying Mary," by measurement. The Bertillon system was employed.

"By this excellent system of measurement," said Miss Cahill the other day, "one gets, in a chorus girl, the real thing. Mirage is avoided. You know what a mirage is? Quite sure? Well, at any rate, I'll point out its meaning to you with a story.

Mean Revenge.

A man had been very badly treated by the proprietors of a boarding house, and when in temporary financial difficulties had been forced to leave. Some time later, smiled upon by fickle fortune, he achieved success and prosperity as a popular dentist, and soon found means to revenge his former landlady's slight. The method he adopted was simple but extremely effective, quite ruining the business of his enemy. Directly opposite the boarding house he opened his new dental establishment, and upon the largest window in bold letters appeared the following notice: "Steelpointed boarding house teeth a spe-

Man and Wife Fatten on Grape-Nuts.

The notion that meat is necessary for real strength and the foundation of solid flesh is no longer as prevalent as formerly.

Excessive meat eaters are usually sluggish a part of the time because they are not able to fully digest their food, and the undigested portion is changed into what is practically a kind of poison that acts upon the blood and nerves, thus getting all through the system.

"I was a heavy meat eater," writes an Ills. man, "and up to two years ago, was in very poor health. I suffered with indigestion so that I only weighed 95 pounds.

"Then I heard about Grape-Nuts and decided to try it. My wife laughed at me at first but when I gained to 125 pounds and felt so fine, she thought she would eat Grape-Nuts too.

"Now she is fat and well and has gained 40 pounds. We never have indigestion any more and seldom feel the desire for meat. A neighbor of ours, 68 years old, was troubled with indigestion for years; was a heavy meat eater, and now since he has been eating Grape-Nuts regularly, he says he is well and never has indigestion. I could name a lot of persons who have really been cured of indigestion by changing from a heavy meat diet to Grape-Nuts." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

OKLA. ADA,

A Chance for Young Men. There seems to be a new profession open to young men of education in the consular service. Those who desire to enter it are now obliged to take a civil service examination and, therefore, there is an opportunity for students leaving college to obtain permanent places at a moderately paying salary at the outset of their careers as bread winners. Indeed, as far as pecuniary remuneration is concerned, they would be better off than if they started as lawyers, doctors or ministers, who frequently have a hard struggle to support themselves before they are well established, and sometimes have to rely on relations or friends to help them out of financial difficulties. The department of state seems to have recognized this to a certain extent, for it has sent to some of the higher educational institutions a circular saying that it is anxious to obtain the services of recent graduates from college, and it asks for encouragement and assistance in this laudable endeavor to improve the diplomatic corps. It can offer at the beginning "It affords me much pleasure to an- an annual salary of about $1,800. This is not a princely recompense, but many respectable and intelligent men are supporting families on $600 a year even in these times of so-called national prosperity. We are told that the professions are over-crowded, but the consular service is not likely to be so for some time to come, now that appointments and promotions in it are not dependent on political favor and influence. To be sure, remarks the Boston Budget, it is not inviting to the man who wants to marry and settle down in one place for his life, but on ambitious youth to enlarge their minds by becoming acquainted with foreign parts of the world, for the adage says that the home-keeping young have

> When a man deserts from the United States army the stigma sticks. And so it should. A soldier who some time ago took "French leave" now wants to reenlist in the army and redeem himself. But he is down on the official records as a deserter, and while that inscription stands he cannot be accepted as a recruit. He has applied to the war department to have the record expunged, but the request has been denied, it being the irrevocable decision of the department to make no change in the records when they are in accord with the proved facts. So the man will go through life branded as a deserter and debarred from the military service of his country, even though he desires to make good for past misconduct. He should have thought of all that, says the Troy Times, before he ran away.

Of all the enterprising things done in Chicago none surpasses the recent act of a widower with four young children to look after. He needed a wife and they needed a mother, so the man wooed the unmarried women of his neighborhood, but found none willing to assume so many domestic cares at once. Therefore he placed a placard in his window one day, bearing the inscription, "A widower, living within, wants a wife. Ladies, if you want a husband, inquire within at once," and remained at home to meet his callers. The interesting part of the story is that the callers came, and the man is likely to find what his children need, if indeed he has not already found a new wife.

Here is a variant on the did-notknow-it-was-loaded item, but having the same old tragic ending. This time it was a woman in Richmond, Va., who playfully pointed a pistol and asked her sister for another help of salad at the table at which both were seated. Then the supposed-to-be harmless weapon was discharged and the missile it contained inflicted what is likely to be fatal injury on the sister. The one safe way to handle any pistol is not to point it at a person. The young Richmond woman who caused the trouble will have the rest of her life to reflect upon that truth.

When an intelligent man cannot answer an honest question in a court of law without "incriminating" himself, his confession to that effect may keep him out of jail for contempt, but it ought not to keep him out longer than is necessary to properly convict him of the criminal conduct he pleads in his own behalf.

Mr. Jerome Evidently Was Aware of His Wife's Culinary Ability.

Some weeks ago the wife of Judge Blank, of Pacific avenue, lost her cook, and since she had no other resource she rolled up her sleeves and for a week provided such meals as the judge had not enjoyed since those happy days when the Blanks did not keep a cook. The judge's delight was so great that by way of appreciative acknowledgment he presented Mrs. Blank with a beautiful ermine cloak. Quite naturally, the incident was a good deal noised about among the social acquaintances of the Blanks and a spirit of envious emulation was developed in certain quarters. It was in this mood that Mrs. Jerome recited the story to her husband. "What do I get, Jerry?" she asked, "if I will do the cooking for a week?" A Chance for Young Men. There seems to be a new profes-aton open to young men of education in the consular service. Those who desire to enter it are now obliged to take a civil service examination and, therefore, there is an opportunity for students leaving college to obtain permanent places at a moderately paying salary at the outset of their careers as bread winners. Indeed, as far as peremuneration is concerned, cuntary they would be better off than if they started as lawyers, doctors or mintsters, who frequently have a hard struggle to support themselves before they are well established, and sometimes have to rely on relations or friends to help them out of fluancial difficulties. The department of state seems to have recognized this to a certain extent, for it has sent to some of the higher educational institutions a circular saying that it is auxious to obtain the services of recent graduates from college, and it asks for encouragement and assistance in this laudable endeavor to improve the diplomatic corps. It can offer at the beginning an annual salary of about $1,800 This is not a princely recompense, but many respectable and intelligent men are supporting families on $600 a year less, and are glad to get that amount even in these times of so-called national prosperity. We are told that the professions are over-crowded, but the consular service is not likely to be so for some time to come now that appointments and promotions in it are not dependent on political favor and influence. To be sure, remarks the Boston Budget, it is not inviting to the man who wants to marry and settle

When a man deserts from the United States army the stigma sticks. And so it should. A soldler who some time ago took "French leave" now wants to recallst in the army and redeem But he is down on the official records as a deserter, and while that inscription stands he cannot be accepted as a recruit. He has applied to the war department to have the record expunged, but the request has been denied, it being the irrevocable decision of the department to make no change in the records when they are in accord with the proved facts the man will go through life branded as a deserter and debarred from the military service of his country, even though he desires to make good for past misconduct He should have thought of all that, says the Troy Times, before he rau away.

Of all the enterprising things done in Chicago none surpasses the recent act of a widower with four young children to look after. He needed a wife and they needed a mother, so the man wooed the unmarifed women of his neighborhood, but found none willing to assume so many domestic cares at once Therefore he placed a placard in his window one day, bearing the scription "A widower, living within, wants a wife Ladies if you want a husband inquire within at once, ' and remained at home to meet his callers The interesting part of the story that the callers came, and the man is likely to find what his children need, if indeed he has not already found a new wife

Here is a variant on the did notknow-it-was-loaded item, but having the same old trugic ending. This time a woman in Richmond, Va, who playfully pointed a pistol and asked her sister for another help of salad at the table at which both were seated. Then the supposed to-be harmless weapon was discharged and the missile it contained inflicted what is likely to be fatal injury on the sister The one safe way to handle any pistol is not to point it at a person. young Richmond woman who caused the trouble will have the rest of her life to reflect upon that truth.

When an intelligent man cannot answer an honest question in a court of law without "incriminating" himself, his confession to that effect may keep him out of jail for contempt, but i ought not to keep him out longer than is necessary to properly convict him of the criminal conduct he pleads in his own behalf.

I have two very distinct impressions of Oatth nor novisines in the name of the transition o and mineral I have been through unics and unles of corn and cotton ! have seen voin oil fields and mines. I have visited wonr tapidly growing cities and I am convinced that this is a land of wonderful promise and of apportunity You need the co-operation of the east to open your mines to build new rallways and towns, and ou will certainly have it. Nowhere in the thickly settled East are there such hances to make good and profitable investments. I have studied the local ed with many of over representative business men and I am confident you are just entering upon an era of such progress and development as this coun try has never known I am in love your climate it is the

A Chance for Young Men. There seems to be a new profession open to young men of education in the consular service. Those who desire to enter it are now obliged to take a civil service examination and, cherefore there is an opportunity for students leaving college to obtain per manent places at a moderately paying salary at the outset of their careers as bread winners Indeed as far as pe cuniary remuneration is concerned, they would be better off than if they started as lawyers doctors or minis ters who frequently have a hard strug gle to support themselves before they are well established and sometimes have to rely on relations or friends to help them out of financial difficulties The department of state seems to have recognized this to a certain ex tent for it has sent to some of the higher educational institutions a circu In saving that it is anxious to obtain the services of recent graduates from college and it asks for encouragement and assistance in this laudable en I Recommend Persons.

When a man deserts from the United States army the stigma sticks. And so it should. A soldier who some time ago took French leave now wants to recallst in the aims and redeem himself. But he is down on the official records as a deserter and while that inscription stands he cannot be accepted as a recruit. He has applied to the war department to have the record expunged but the request has been denied it being the irrevocable decision of the department to make no change in the records when they are in accord with the proved facts the man will go through life branded a deserter and debarred from the military service of his country even though he desires to make good for past misconduct He should have thought of all that says the Troy Times before he ran away
